

BQA CERTIFICATION TRAINING

▶ ONLINE

BQA for Producers online certifications include cow/calf, stocker/backgrounder & feedyard

BQA Transportation certifications include farmer/rancher & professional drivers

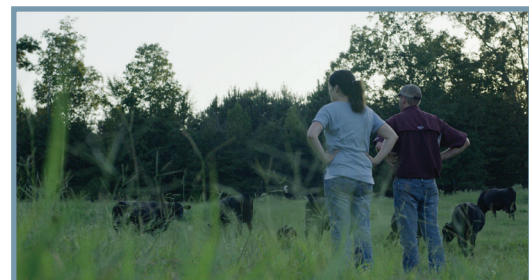

▶ IN-PERSON

The Idaho BQA Program boasts a network of highly qualified trainers. To view a schedule of upcoming events or request a training event visit www.IdahoBeefQuality.com.

▶ CERTIFIED TRAINERS

We are expanding our training team! To learn more and apply to become a Certified Trainer, visit www.IdahoBeefQuality.com.

Consumers, processors, retailers, and foodservice personnel are demanding a strong beef industry commitment to responsible cattle handling. Completing BQA certification supports Idaho's beef industry efforts to build competitiveness, consumer trust, and profitability.

QUESTIONS?
Call: 208-376-6004
Email: BeefCouncil@IDBeef.org

IDAHO BEEF COUNCIL
Funded by Beef Farmers and Ranchers

Scan the QR code for more information or visit www.IdahoBeefQuality.com.

CERTIFICATION TRAINING

WEDNESDAY
OCTOBER 11, 2023

WHY BQA CERTIFICATION?

Consumers, processors, retailers, and foodservice are demanding quality beef products that satisfy their desire to know that the beef industry is committed to raising and processing beef responsibly.

Each person completing BQA Certification supports Idaho's beef industry efforts to build competitiveness and improve profitability.

THE LINE-UP

Meranda Small, University of Idaho Extension Educator & Idaho BQA Certified Trainer along with Kelton Hatch, Zoetis and future BQA Certified Trainer, will be teaching the beef checkoff funded BQA course.

TIME:

9:30 a.m. Registration
10:00 a.m. BQA Training
12:30 p.m. Exam

PLACE:

Bruneau American Legion Post
32536 Belle Ave N
Bruneau, ID 83604

SIGN UP NOW
FOR BQA
CERTIFICATION
TRAINING